Saturday morning, September 27, 2014 is the date for the third annual Purple Parade. The purpose of the event is to raise awareness for bullying and domestic violence prevention. A local high school student is the keynote speaker and she will share her personal story of how bullying impacted her life.

There will be activities for people of all ages which include magicians, Zumba, self-defense demonstration and roller skating.

The Purple Parade is actually a walk and takes place at the Midtown Cultural & Education Center at 925 George W. Engram Blvd. in Daytona Beach.

The cost is only $5.00 per person or $25.00 for a group of up to 10 people. Preregistration is preferred. Go to www.domesticabusecouncil.com.
