On April 1, 2013, the Domestic Abuse Council will have new legal counsel within its legal department. Attorney Julie Ozburn will take the helm of handling civil injunctions, expungements and other legal issues pertaining to family law for clients of the agency.

After 10 years and 1000 clients, Sylvia Starbuck is retiring from the practice of law. Starbuck started with the agency as a full time family practice lawyer; however, as grant funding was reduced, she became part time with the bulk of her practice specializing in civil injunctions for protection.

Ms. Ozburn is a member of the Florida Bar and the Volusia County Bar Association and has been practicing law in Florida since 1984. A graduate of Stetson Law School in St. Petersburg, Florida, Ozburn has spent time working for the Public Defender, the State Attorney and in private practice. In 2006, Ozburn opened her own practice which focuses on family law and mediations.
