From local mega sports to experts in sea turtle lighting to individuals to a business in Ohio to a hospital and a Fortune 500 company to police departments, the Domestic Abuse Council's Annual Meeting and Domestic Violence Awareness Month Luncheon has attracted 21 sponsors to support the event which will be held on October 8th at the Halifax River Yacht Club in Daytona Beach.

The Silver sponsors include: Daytona International Speedway Corp, Dickens & Associates, Inc. Consulting Engineers, Florida Hospital Fish Memorial and IVC Technologies.

This is the fourth annual luncheon to raise awareness and funds for the mission of the agency which is to eliminate domestic violence in Volusia County. State Attorney R.J. Larizza will be the keynote speaker and a survivor of domestic violence will share her personal story. The honorable Judge Fields will swear in new members of the Board of Directors and Cheryl Fuller, CEO will impart her inspirational vision.

An estimated 150 community members are expected to be in attendance.
