Give Courage, Strength & Hope, Inc. a new non-profit in the Volusia County area, founded by Marcy Tutor has been reaching out in the community to make a difference to the lives of women and children. Recently, Give Courage, Strength and Hope was the sole sponsor of the recently held Purple Parade. For more information about Give Courage, Strength & Hope, call (386) 478-8447.

“If it had not been for the generosity of this non-profit and Marcy’s vision, we would not have been able to have this community wide event,” Cheryl Fuller, CEO of Domestic Abuse Council said.

With nearly 300 in attendance this was a great showing for a first time event. Students came out in force from Bethune Cookman and University Embry Riddle University. Teams from St James Episcopal School attended as well as students from University High School and lots of individuals and groups from throughout the area.

Prizes were given for those most passionately dressed in purple garb. The group award went to the Daytona Destiny Drumline. The youth award was presented to Annie Grossholz and the adult award went to Sadie Compton.
